

American media is already overwhelmingly dominated by corporate interests. It is essential that further consolidation in media ownership is stopped. I urge you to provide the American people the freedom to diverse media.